

Gender pay figures for Wadham College, Oxford

In compliance with the Equality Act 2010 (Gender Pay Gap information) Regulations 2017, Wadham College is providing figures indicating pay based on gender. This is the 4th year of reporting gender pay figures. From 5th April 2018, the data set has included those who mark student test papers.

The figures presented below in the required format indicate a pay gap with pay rates using the mean average, and the median average, and also a pay gap for bonuses using the mean average and median average, although a higher proportion of females received a bonus. This data is open to multiple interpretations and from investigating the pay gaps we see two predominant patterns:

- i) among academic staff who have been with the College for more years there is a greater proportion of male job holders, and
- ii) among non-academic roles there is a greater proportion of female job holders, the minority of male job holders include many of those who have served the college for the longest, and within different departments we typically see applicants showing strong gender preferences for certain types of roles.

We will continue to review the data and monitor the work practices we adopt. The College supports non-discrimination, and does not seek, select or promote staff according to gender. When a job is advertised, the rate of pay is set based on an evaluation of the job description with the aim of selecting the most suitable applicant, irrespective of gender. Progression and pay grades are based on job content and performance of the job holder, again irrespective of gender.

A legacy bonus scheme, which is closed to new appointments, continues to offer a bonus to non-academic staff, regardless of gender, in recognition of their work to generate conference income and their contribution to the College.

While we value and encourage diversity, it is not our aim artificially to engineer equal numbers or equal proportions of staff or to set quotas, by gender or any other protected characteristic, in any particular role or in the aggregated workforce.
